Health & Safety Experience?

We are looking to form a small team of parishioners with health and safety experience to help ensure that our parish buildings and grounds remain compliant. If you are willing to help and can set aside some time for this important task please speak to Fr Christopher or email him direct at parish.bletchley@northamptondiocese.org

Parish Offertory Giving Envelopes

If you normally use the parish giving envelopes and haven't yet picked up a new box for the financial year then a named box awaits you at All Saints Church. They are located near the middle heater on the right hand side of All Saints Church. If you would like to sign up for envelopes please call Jo at the parish office.

We try to ensure we recycle as much as we can both at St Thomas Aquinas Church and at All Saints Church. We are

News from Missio

Recently, Fr Anthony Chantry - the National Director of Missio in England and Wales - attended the Beatification of Pauline Jaricot, one of Missio's founders, in Lyon, France. Reflecting on her life, he said: 'Pauline Jaricot suffered ill health, self-doubt, rejection, humiliation, and poverty, and yet because of her deep faith and spirituality she persevered. Powered by her passion for mission, the seeds she planted have grown and flourished across the world, producing the abundant fruit of young and vibrant Churches. Pauline was born in AD 1799 to a wealthy family living in Lyon. Amid the turmoil of the French Revolution, her parents gave her a loving upbringing and a living Catholic faith. Pauline was inspired by her parents' faith and acts of charity. In her teens, she grew into a worldly and flirtatious young woman and as her family were wealthy, a life in high society and social whirl began. However, Pauline's life was to change forever. A severe fall left her with nerve damage which affected her movement and speech. Her older brother and mother died at around the same time. Pauline shut herself off from the world as her health deteriorated. Nevertheless, with the help of a Priest her Catholic faith was reinvigorated and her love of God and the Sacraments were renewed. At this time she committed herself forever to Our Blessed Mother, Mary. Pauline gave away her finery and began to take care of people living in poverty and to daily minister to the dying. She also began to collect funds for the missionary activity of the Church. Pauline had found her mission in life: to bring the light and hope of Jesus Christ to the dark and challenging situations of her day.' You can:

- Watch a wonderful video (produced by Missio USA) about Blessed Pauline Jaricot here: <https://youtu.be/vt6OIVBiQWo>
- Find resources, for children and adults, about Blessed Pauline Jaricot here: <https://missio.org.uk/pauline-resources/>

At the Beatification of Pauline Jaricot, Fr Anthony met with Fr Andri from Ukraine; this which was a wonderful sign of the Church's solidarity and friendship with the people of this troubled land.
